RESOLUTION 01-08-28 CLAIMS

WHEREAS, the Kosciusko County Commissioners have determined a need exists to authorize the County Auditor to pay claims earlier than the current cycle of claim payments.

WHEREAS, IC 36-2-6-4.5 as amended in 2001 by the Indiana General Assembly does allow the early payment of specific claims when an resolution is adopted by the County Commissioners.

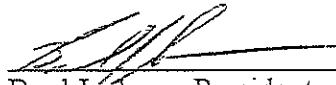

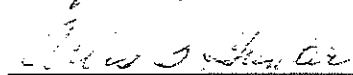

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, certain specified bills may be paid by the County Auditor upon receipt. Said bills must be advertised in the next advertising cycle and approved by the Commissioners at their next regular meeting pursuant existing laws.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, those bills that may be paid early include the following:

- a. Property or services purchased or leased from the United States Government, its agencies or its political subdivisions.
- b. License or permit fees.
- c. Insurance premiums.
- d. Utility payment or connection charges.
- e. Maintenance or service agreements.
- f. Leases or rental agreements.
- g. Bond or coupon payments.
- h. Payroll.
- i. State or federal taxes.
- j. Expenses that must be paid because of emergency circumstances.
- k. Bills that accrue penalties or interest if not paid before the claim cycle.

Adopted this 28th day of August 2001.
